

CLAIMS

1. What I claim as my invention is : America & Europe membership for overseas companies, enterprises, manufacturers, representatives .., this association licenses its (reputation) membership value uniquely to overseas manufacturers, enterprises, companies, representatives.. to use America & Europe membership emblems in their letterheads, catalogs.. for exchange of reasonable annual membership fees to be paid by these companies.. to the service association.
2. What I claim as my invention is : The elements and structure of U.S. & Europe reputation membership association or any other modification of policy structure to the same effect, contents as well as illustrations of the invention in these documents, the invention composes of membership association/company, its function, emblems, membership statements, using of America & Europe membership emblems for overseas companies, enterprises, manufacturers, representatives in their letterheads, catalogs.. office machineries; computers, printers, scanners, copiers, fax machines, telephones and requirements of business office..